

The High Court Of Madhya Pradesh

MCRC-11991-2021

(VIJAYSINGH YADAV Vs THE STATE OF MADHYA PRADESH)

3

Indore, Dated : 26-03-2021

Shri B.B. Singh, learned counsel for the applicant.

Shri Ranjeet Sen, learned Panel Lawyer for the respondent/State.

Shri Avinash Sirpurkar, learned senior counsel with Ms. Seema Sharma, learned counsel for the objector.

During the course of hearing, it has transpired that prima facie the applicant is though styled as a married person with four children aged about 37 years but is alleged to have indulged in highly objectionable unethical activity unbecoming of an advocate while causing embarrassment to a lady judge through WhatsApp and on social media portals.

It appears expedient to direct for his mental checkup through a qualified Doctor or a psychiatrist and submit report before this Court.

Shri Pushymitra Bhargav, learned Additional Advocate General present in the Court is directed to ensure the compliance of aforesaid direction through Superintendent of Police and other authority, if required.

List on 15.04.2021.
