THIS WRIT PETITION IS FILED UNDER ARTICLE 226 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA PRAYING TO DECLARE THAT SECTION 15 OF THE REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS ACT, 1969 AND RULE 11(4) OF THE KARNATAKA REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS RULES, 1999 BE READ DOWN SO AS TO INCLUDE ALL VOLUNTARY CHANGES TO NAME AND GENDER IDENTITY IN ONE'S BIRTH CERTIFICATE, AND ETC.

THIS WRIT PETITION COMING ON FOR ORDERS AND HAVING BEEN RESERVED FOR ORDERS ON 02.12.2024, THIS DAY, THE COURT PRONOUNCED THE FOLLOWING:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR JUSTICE SURAJ GOVINDARAJ

CAV ORDER

1. The petitioner is before this Court seeking for the following reliefs:-

- i. Declare that Section 15 of the Registration of Births & Deaths Act, 1969 and Rule 11 (4) of the Karnataka Registration of Births and Deaths Rules, 1999 be read down so as to include all voluntary changes to name and gender identity in one's birth certificate.*
- ii. Issue a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the Respondent No.2 to issue to the petitioner a new Birth Certificate reflecting her current name and gender identity' and*
- iii. Grant any other relief, which the Hon'ble Court deems fit in the circumstances of the case in the interests of justice and equity.*

2. The petitioner was born as a male on 06.04.1983 and the birth came to be registered on 20.04.1983 with registration No.557. The petitioner having been diagnosed and found suffering from gender Dysphoria on 16.07.2007 during psychiatric evaluation at the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, the petitioner having felt like a girl in a man's body. On reassessment being made by the concerned Doctors and authorities, the petitioner underwent sex re-assignment Surgery after due approval. Thereafter, the petitioner changed her name and made various applications for necessary changes of name and gender to be effected in identity documents like Aadhaar Card, driving licence and passport etc., which were so permitted.

3. When the petitioner made an application to respondent No.2 requesting the name and gender of the petitioner to be changed in the birth certificate to reflect her correct name and gender as 'female', respondent No.2 orally informed that Section 15 of The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 (for short, 'the Act of 1969'), does not contemplate such a change and/ or a modification to be made in the birth certificate already issued and the only change that could be effected is as regards any erroneous entry made in the birth certificate. It is in that background that the petitioner is before this Court seeking for the above reliefs.

4. Ms. Aparna Mehrotra, learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the Act of 1969 has not undergone any change, which was required in view of the coming into effect of the Transgender Persons(Protection of Rights) Act, 2019 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Transgender Act'). The rights which have been conferred on Transgender persons under the Transgender Act, have not been suitably incorporated in the Act of 1969, resulting in an anomalous situation, where despite the Transgender Act, permitting the petitioner to avail of a change in the certificate incorporating the change in name and change in gender, the authorities by contending that Section 15 of the Act of 1969 does not envisage such a situation, have refused to act on the application submitted by the petitioner and in that background, she submits that the reliefs sought for in the petition are required to be granted.

5. Learned Addl. Government Advocate Sri. Mahantesh Shetter appearing for respondent No.1 submits that the Registrar of Births and Deaths can act only in terms of the Act of 1969. The Act of 1969 not providing for change in the name or gender to be made post the entry in the register of births, such a correction in name and gender cannot be effected by the Registrar and it is for that reason, that the application has not been acted upon.

6. Heard Ms. Aparna Mehrotra, learned Advocate for the petitioner, learned Addl. Government Advocate Sri. Mahantesh Shetter, for respondent No.1 and Sri. K.N. Nithish, learned Counsel for respondent No.2 and perused the papers.

7. The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019 [hereunder referred to as "Transgender Act"] was enacted and came into effect on 10.01.2020 vide Notification No.S.0.135(E) dated 10th January 2020 published in Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II.
8. Transgender Act was promulgated after taking into consideration the lacunae in the applicable laws to recognize, cater to and protect the interests of Transgender persons. Before the Transgender Act, there was only a binary classification of a person as 'male' or 'female', it is only after the Transgender Act came into force, the binary classification gave way to recognition of the third gender namely the 'Transgender'.
9. The Transgender Act has been promulgated to provide for protection of rights to transgender persons and their welfare and also for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto alongwith various aspects.

10. Sub-section (k) of Section 2 provides for definition of Transgender person which reads as under:

(k) "transgender person" means a person whose gender does not match with the gender assigned to that person at birth and includes trans-man or trans-woman (whether or not such person has undergone Sex Re-assignment Surgery or hormone therapy or laser therapy or such other therapy), person with intersex variations, genderqueer and person having such socio-cultural identities as kinner, hijra, aravani and jogta.

11. The above definition would indicate that a person whose gender does not match with the gender assigned to that person at birth and has undergone sex reassignment therapy or the like would be a transgender person whether he is trans-man or trans-woman.
12. In the present case, the petitioner is a trans-woman, who has transitioned from man to woman after going through Sex-Reassignment procedures.

13. Section 3 deals with prohibition against discrimination which reads as under:

"3. PROHIBITION AGAINST DISCRIMINATION-
No person or establishment shall on any of the namely:-

(a) the denial, or discontinuation of or unfair treatment in, educational establishments and services thereof;

(b) the unfair treatment in, or in relation to, employment or occupation;

(c) the denial of, or termination from, employment or occupation;

(d) the denial or discontinuation of, or unfair treatment in, healthcare services;

(e) the denial or discontinuation of, or unfair treatment with regard to, access to, or provision or enjoyment or use of any goods, accommodation, service, facility, benefit, privilege or opportunity dedicated to the use of the general public or customarily available to the public;

(f) the denial or discontinuation of, or unfair treatment with regard to the right of movement;

(g) the denial or discontinuation of, or unfair treatment with regard to the right to reside, purchase, rent, or otherwise occupy any property;

(h) the denial or discontinuation of, or unfair treatment in, the opportunity to stand for or hold public or private office; and

(i) the denial of access to, removal from, or unfair treatment in, Government or private establishment in whose care or custody a transgender person may be."

14. Section 3 of the Transgender Act provides that there shall be no prohibition or discrimination against a transgender person on the basis of such person being a transgender and by virtue thereof, equal status has been provided to recognise a transgender person vis-a-viz a male or a female. That is to say that any rights that a male or a female may have would also vest with the transgender person and the same cannot be denied barely on account of the person being transgender.

15. Under Section 4, there is a right conferred on the Transgender person for recognition of the identity of such a person as a Transgender which reads as under:

"4. Recognition of identity of transgender person-

(1) A transgender person shall have a right to be recognised as such, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) A person recognised as transgender under subsection (1) shall have a right to self-perceived gender identity".

16. Section 4 provides for the recognition of identity of transgender person providing a right to such person to be recognized as such on the basis of the self-perceived gender identity in terms of sub-section (2) of Section 4.

17. A person when born and the birth certificate is obtained, the entries made in the birth certificate is on the basis of the gender as determined by physical nature as on that date and the name of the person provided and recorded would be the name as may be given by the parent or parents of such person.

18. In the case of a transgender, it is only subsequently that a person realizes that such a person is not a male or female as shown and recognized in the birth certificate, but feels otherwise than a male or a female, inasmuch as, if on birth a person may be classified as a male and if the person was to be of the opinion that he is a female, then upon obtaining due permission and sanctions, sex reassignment procedures could be carried out to transition that male person to a female and vice versa i.e., if on birth a person may be classified as a female and if the person was to be of the opinion that she is a male, then upon obtaining due permission and sanctions, sex reassignment procedures could be carried out to transition that female person to a male.

19. Once such transition occurs, Section 5 of the Transgender Act provides for an application for certification of identity to be made in the manner prescribed, which is so prescribed under Rule 3 of The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Rules, 2020 (for short 'the Transgender Rules') and an application in terms of Form-1 is required to be filed in relation thereto.

20. Section 5 of the Transgender Act is reproduced hereunder for easy reference:

5. Application for certificate of identity.—A transgender person may make an application to the District Magistrate for issuing a certificate of identity as a transgender person, in such form and manner, and accompanied with such documents, as may be prescribed:

(2) The gender of transgender person shall be recorded in all official documents in accordance with certificate issued under sub-section (1).

Provided that the appropriate Government may undertake measures, as it deems appropriate, to facilitate the submission of applications for certificate of identity by transgender persons living in remote areas or disadvantaged conditions:

Provided further that in case of a minor child, such application shall be made by a parent or guardian of such minor child and in the case of a child in need of care and protection, by the competent authority under the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 (2 of 2016).

(3) Transgender persons who have officially recorded their change in gender, whether as male, female or transgender, prior to the coming into force of the Act shall not be required to submit an application for certificate of identity under these rules:

36. In terms of sub-rule (3) of Rule 5 the certificate of identity issued under sub-rule(1) of Rule 5 shall be the basis to change the gender as well as the name and the photograph, if so necessitated, of the transgender person in all such official documents as provided in Annexure-1, in accordance with the gender specified in the said certificate of identity, which would include a birth Certificate.

37. Rule 7 of the Transgender Rules reads as under

7. Issue of certificate of identity under section 7- (1)
The District Magistrate shall issue a revised certificate of identity in Form – 4 to the applicant seeking change in gender indicating the gender of such a person as male or female, as the case may be.

(2) The District Magistrate shall issue the revised certificate under sub-rule (1) within fifteen days of its receipt of the application.

(6) Any official document wherein gender, name or photograph of transgender person is revised based on the said certificate of identity shall bear the same serial or reference number as in the original official document of such transgender person who seeks change in the name or gender or both in the official documents.

38. Again in terms of sub rule (3) of Rule 7 The certificate of identity issued under sub-rule (1) of Rule 7 shall entitle the applicant to record or change the gender, as well as photograph and name, if so necessitated of transgender person in all such official documents provided in Annexure – 1, in accordance with the gender specified in the said certificate of identity as male or female, as the case may be which would include a Birth Certificate.

39. The Transgender Act being a special enactment, the mandate of a special Act would have to be complied with by General Enactment like the Act of 1969.

40. In terms of the definition of 'Transgender' in Section 2 (K) of the Transgender Act and in order to give due effect to the rights recognized under the said act and more particularly to give effect to the right of a Transgender Person to be recognized and identified as such in terms of Section 4 thereof, making of an application for issuance of certificate of identity in terms of Section 5 thereof, issuance of certificate of identity in terms of Section 6 thereof which in turn recognizes the right for change of Gender in terms of Section 7 thereof, requiring a revised certificate of identity being issued.

41. A birth certificate also being an official document as per Annexure 1 to the transgender rules as defined under sub-rule (c) of Rule 2 and listed under Annexure 1 thereof a revised birth certificate would have to be issued if all the requirements of the Transgender Act are fulfilled.

42. There is an obligation in terms of Section 8 of the Transgender Act on the government to safeguard the interest of the Transgenders, one of the modes and methodologies for such protection being the implementation of the mandate of Section 4 to 7 of the Transgenders Act, the Government would have to carry out necessary amendments to the Act of 1969 and Rules framed thereunder to give effect to the Transgenders Act and establish necessary procedures required to be followed, to give effect to the purpose and intent and mandate of the special laws, namely the Transgender Act.

43. In that view of the matter, the authority not having acted on the application filed by the petitioner for the reason that Section 15 of the Act of 1969 not providing for the same, the said authority has acted contrary to the rights, which have been recognized under the Transgender Act, by negating the rights of a Transgender recognized under the Transgender Act.

44. No particular fault can be found with the authorities under the Act of 1969 since they are required to act in terms of the statute and they themselves cannot read anything more into the Act. The lacunae was however required to be brought to the notice of the state.

45. The above facts and circumstances require this Court's intervention. Since there is no procedure now in force providing for the correction in the birth
