4. Status of apartments. - Each apartment, together with its undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment shall, for all purposes, constitute heritable and transferable immovable property within the meaning of any law for the time being in force in the State, and accordingly, an apartment owner may transfer his apartment and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment by way of sale, mortgage, lease, gift, exchange or in any other manner whatsoever in the same manner, to the same extent and subject to the same rights, privileges, obligations, liabilities, investigations, legal proceedings and remedies and to penalty, forfeiture and punishment as any other immovable property or make a bequest of the same under any law applicable to be transfer and succession of immovable property.

5. Ownership of apartment. - (1) Each apartment owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his apartment.

(2) Each apartment owner shall execute a declaration that he submits his apartment to the provisions of this Act and a deed of apartment relation to his apartment in the manner prescribed for the purpose.

6. Common areas and facilities. - (1) Each apartment owner shall be entitled to an undivided interest in the common areas and facilities in the percentage expressed in the declaration.

(2) The percentage referred to in sub-section (1) shall be computed by taking as basis the value of the apartment in relation to the value of the property; and such percentage shall reflect the limited common areas and facilities.

(3) The percentage of the undivided interest of each apartment owner in the common areas and facilities as expressed in the declaration shall have a permanent character and shall not be altered without the consent of all of the apartment owners expressed in an amended declaration duly executed and registered as provided in this Act.

(4) The percentage of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities shall not be separated from the apartment to which it appertains, and shall be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with the apartment even though such interest is not expressly mentioned in the conveyance or other instrument.

(5) The common areas and facilities shall remain undivided, and no apartment owner or any other person shall bring any action for partition or division of any part thereof, unless the property has been excluded from the provisions of this Act as provided in section 14 or unless the property is subject to an action for partition under section 22, and any covenant to the contrary shall be null and void.

(6) Each apartment owner may use the common areas and facilities in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other apartment owners.

(7) The necessary work of maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and the making of any additions or improvements thereto shall be carried out only as provided in this Act and in the bye-laws.

(8) The Association of Apartment Owners shall have the irrevocable right, to be exercised by the Secretary or Managing Committee, to have such access to each apartment from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair and replacement of any of the common areas and facilities therein or accessible there from, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the common areas and facilities or to another apartment or apartments.

7. Compliance with, Covenants, Bye-laws and Administrative Provisions. - Each apartment owner shall comply strictly with the bye-laws and with the Administrative Rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and with the covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in the declaration or in the deed to his apartment, and failure to comply with any of the same shall be a ground for an action to recover sums due, for damages or injunctive relief or both maintainable by the Secretary or Managing Committee on behalf of the Association of Apartment Owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved apartment owner.

8. Certain works prohibited. - No apartment owner shall, without the previous unanimous consent of all the other apartment owners, -

(a) do any works which would-

- (i) jeopardise the soundness or safety of the property; or*
- (ii) reduce the value of the property; or*
- (iii) impair any easement or hereditament; or*
- (b) add any material structure to his apartment or excavate any additional basement or cellar in the property.*

9. Encumbrances against apartments removal from encumbrances, effect of part payment . - (1) Subsequent to recording the declaration as provided in this Act and while the property remains subject to this Act, no encumbrance of any nature shall arise or be effective against the property and during such period encumbrances may arise or be created only against each apartment and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto, in the same manner and under the same conditions in every respect as encumbrance may arise or be created upon or against any other separate parcel of property subject to individual ownership:

Provided that, if during such period, any encumbrance has arisen or been created against such apartment and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto, no such apartments and such percentage of undivided interest shall be partitioned or sub-divided in interest:

Provided further that, no labour performed or materials furnished with the consent or at the request of an apartment owner or his agent or his contractor or sub-contractor shall be the basis for a charge or any encumbrance under the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (Central Act 4 of 1882) against the apartment or any other property of any other apartment owner not expressly consenting to or requesting for the same, except that such express consent shall be deemed to be given by the owner of any apartment in the case of emergency repairs thereto.

(2) Labour performed and material furnished for the common areas and facilities, if, duly authorised by the Association of apartment owners, the Secretary or Managing Committee in accordance with this Act, the declaration or the bye-laws, shall be deemed to be performed or furnished with the express consent of each apartment owner and shall be the basis for a charge or encumbrance under the Act aforesaid against each of the apartments and shall be subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section.

(3) In the event of a charge or any encumbrance against two or more apartments becoming effective, the apartment owners of the separate apartments may exclude their apartments and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartments from the charge of encumbrance by payment of the fractional or proportional amounts attributable to each of the apartment affected, and thereupon the apartment and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto shall thereafter be free and clear of the charge or encumbrance.

(4) Payments under sub-section(3) shall be computed by reference to the percentages appearing in the declaration.

(5) The satisfaction or discharge of any charge or encumbrance shall not prevent the person having any other charge or encumbrance from proceeding to enforce his rights against any apartment and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto.

10. Common profits and expenses. - The common profits of the property shall be distributed among, and the common expenses shall be charged to, the apartment owners according to the percentage of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities.

11. Contents of Declaration. - (1) The declaration shall contain the following particulars, namely:

- (a) description of the land on which the building and improvements are, or to be, located; and whether the land is freehold or leasehold;*

- (b) description of the building stating the number of storeys and basements, the number of apartments and the principal materials by which it is, or is to be, constructed;*
- (c) the apartment number of each apartment and a statement of its location, approximate area, number of rooms and immediate common area to which it has access, and any other data necessary for its proper identification;*
- (d) description of the common areas and facilities;*
- (e) description of the limited common areas and facilities, if any, stating to which apartments their use is reserved;*
- (f) value of the property and of each apartment, and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appertaining to each apartment and its owner for all purposes, including voting; and a statement that the apartment and such percentage of undivided interest are not* encumbered in any manner whatsoever on the date of the declaration;

(g) statement of the purposes for which the building and each of the apartments are intended and restricted as to use;

(h) the name of a person to receive service of process in the cases hereinafter provided, together with the residence or place of business of such person which shall be within the city, municipality township or panchayat in which the building is located;

(i) provisions as to the percentage of votes by the apartment owners, which shall be determinative of whether to rebuild, repair, restore or sell the property in the event of damage or destruction of all or part of the property;

(j) any other details in connection with the property which the person executing the declaration may deem desirable to set forth consistent with this Act;

(k) the method by which the declaration may be amended, consistent with the provisions of this Act.

(2) A true copy each of the declaration and the bye-laws and all amendments thereto shall be filed in the office of the competent authority.

12. Contents of Deeds of Apartments. - (1) Deeds of apartments shall include the following particulars namely:

- (a) description of the land as provided in section 11 or the post office address of the property, including in either case the liber, page and date of executing the declaration, the date and serial number of its registration under the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908), and the date and other references, if any, of its filing with the competent authority;*
- (b) the apartment number of the apartment in the declaration and any other data necessary for its proper identification;*
- (c) statement of the use for which the apartment is intended and restrictions on its use, if any;*
- (d) the percentage of undivided interest appertaining to the apartment in the common areas and facilities;*

(e) any further details which the parties to the deed may deem desirable to set forth consistent with the declaration and this Act.

(2) A true copy of every deed of apartment shall be filled in the office of the competent authority.

13. Declarations, deeds of apartments and copies of floor plans to be registered. - (1) The declaration and all amendments thereto the deed of apartment in respect of each apartment and the floor plans of the buildings referred to in sub-section (2) shall be registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908).

(2) Simultaneously with the registration of the declaration, there shall be filed along with it a set of the floor plans of the building showing the lay-out, location, apartment numbers and dimensions of the apartments, stating the name of the building or that it has no name, and bearing the verified statement of an architect certifying that it is an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the building as filed with and approved by the local authority within whose jurisdiction the building is located.

(3) If the plans referred to in sub-section (2) do not include a verified statement of an architect that such plans fully and accurately depict the layout, location, apartment numbers and dimensions of the apartments as built there shall be recorded prior to the first conveyance of any apartment, an amendment to the declaration to which shall be attached a verified statement of an architect certifying that the plans thereto for field, or being field simultaneously with such amendment, fully and accurately depict the layout, location, apartment number and dimensions of the apartment as built.

(4) In all registration offices, a book called "Register of Declarations and Deeds of Apartments under the Kerala Apartment Ownership Act, 1983" and index relating thereto shall be kept.

(5) The book and the index referred to in sub-section (4) shall be kept in such form and shall contain such particulars as may prescribed.

(6) It shall be the duty of every Secretary or Managing Committee to sent to the Sub Registrar of the area in which the property containing the apartment is situate, or if there is no Sub Registrar for the area, to the Registrar of the District in which such property is situate, a certified copy of the declaration and deed of apartment made in respect of every apartment contained in the building forming part of the property together with a memorandum containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(7) The Sub Registrar or, as the case may be, the Registrar shall register the declaration along with floor plans of the building and the deed of apartment in the Register of Declarations and Deeds of Apartments under this Act shall also enter particulars in the index kept under sub-section (5).

(8) Any person acquiring any apartment of any apartment owner shall be deemed to have notice of the declaration and of the deed of apartment as from the date of its registration under sub-section (7).

(9) Except as provided in this section, the provisions of the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908), shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Registration of the declarations and deeds of apartments and the words and expressions used in this section but not defined in this Act shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908).

14. Exclusion from provisions of Act. - (1) All the apartment owners may exclude a property from the provisions of this Act by an instrument to that effect duly executed:

Provided that the holders of all charges and other encumbrances affecting any of the apartments consent thereto or agree, in either case by instruments duly executed; that their charges or encumbrances be transferred to the percentage of the undivided interest of the apartment owner in the property as hereinafter provided.

(2) Upon the exclusion of the property from the provisions of this Act, the property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the apartment owners, and the undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common areas and facilities.

15. Exclusion no bar to subsequent resubmission of property to the Act. - The exclusion provided or in section 14 shall in no way bar the subsequent resubmission of the property to the provisions of this Act.

16. Bye-laws. - (1) The administration of every property shall be governed by bye-laws, a true copy of which shall be annexed to the declaration.

(2) No modification of, or amendment to, the bye-laws shall be valid, unless set forth in an amendment to the declaration, and such amendment is duly recorded, and a copy thereof is duly filed with the competent authority.

(3) The bye-laws shall provide for the following matters namely:-

(a) the election from among the apartment owners, of a Managing Committee and the number of persons constituting the same;

(b) the term of office of the members of the Managing committee;

(c) the powers and duties and the allowances to be paid to the members of the Managing Committee;

- (d) the method of removal from office of members of the Managing Committee;*
- (e) the election of a Secretary to the Managing Committee and his powers and duties;*
- (f) the powers and duties of the Managing Committee which may be delegated to the Secretary by the Committee;*
- (g) procedure for convening and conducting meetings of the apartment owners;*
- (h) election of a President from among the members of the Managing Committee who shall preside over the meetings of such Committee of the Association of apartment owners;*
- (i) election of a Treasurer and his powers and duties;*
- (j) maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and payments therefor;*
- (k) manner of collecting from the apartment owners their share of the common expenses;*

- (l) designation and conditions of service of persons employed for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities;*
 - (m) the method of adopting and of amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common areas and facilities;*
 - (n) such restrictions on the requirements respecting the use and maintenance of the apartments and the use of the common areas and facilities not set forth in the declaration, as are designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of their respective apartments and of the common areas and facilities by the several apartment owners;*
 - (o) the percentage of the votes required to amend the bye-laws.*
- (4) The bye-laws may also provide for the following matters, namely:-*
- (a) subject to the provisions of this Act, provision for regulating transfer or partition of any apartment and percentage of undivided interest in the common* areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment, subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the bye-laws;

(b) provisions enabling the Managing Committee to retain certain areas of the building and lease to non-residents for commercial purposes and for distribution of resulting proceeds to the apartment owners as income or application thereof in reduction of their common charge for maintaining the building;

(c) any other provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, relating to the audit and accounts and administration of the property and annual and special general meetings, annual report and the like.

17. Waiver of use of common areas and facilities. - No apartment owner shall be entitled to exempt himself from liability for his contribution towards the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common areas and facilities, or by abandonment of his apartment.

18. Separate assessment. - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law relating to local authorities, each apartment and its percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment (being an apartment submitted to the provisions of this Act) shall be deemed to be separate property for the purpose of assessment to tax on lands and buildings leviable under such law and shall be assessed and taxed accordingly; and for this purpose, a local authority shall make all suitable rules to carry out the provisions of this section.

19. Charge on property for common expenses. - All sums assessed by the Association of Apartment Owners but unpaid for the share of the common expenses chargeable to any apartment shall constitute a charge on such apartment and shall have priority over all other charges, except only-

(i) charge, if any, on the apartment for payment of taxes due to the Government or a local authority; and

(ii) all sums unpaid on a first mortgage of the apartment

20. Joint and several liability of vendor for unpaid common expenses. - (1) On the sale of an apartment, the purchaser of the apartment shall be jointly and severally liable with the vendor for all unpaid assessment against the vendor for his share of the common expenses upto the time of the sale without prejudice to the purchaser's right to recover from the vendor the amount paid by the purchaser therefor.

(2) Any such purchaser shall be entitled to a statement from the Secretary or Managing Committee setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessment against the vendor, and such purchaser shall not be liable, for, nor shall the apartment sold, be subject to a charge for any unpaid share of the common expenses against such apartment accrued prior to such sale in excess of the amount therein setforth.

21. Insurance. - (1) The Secretary or Managing Committee if required by the declaration of the bye-laws or by a Majority of the apartment owners, or at the request of a mortgage having a first mortgage covering an apartment, shall have the authority to, and shall, obtain insurance for the property against loss or damage by fire, and such other hazards under such terms and for such amounts as shall be required, or requested.

(2) Such insurance coverage shall be written on the property in the name of such Secretary or of the Managing Committee as trustee for each of the apartment owners in the percentages established in the declaration.

(3) Premium shall be common expenses and provisions for such insurance shall be without prejudice to the right of each apartment owner to insure his own apartment for his benefit.

22. Disposition of property, destruction or damage. - If within sixty days of the date of damage to, or destruction of, all or any part of the property, it is not decided by the Association of apartment owners to repair, reconstruct or rebuilt the property or part, as the case may be, then and in that event, -

- (a) the property shall be deemed to be owner in common by the apartment owners;*
- (b) the undivided interest in the property owner in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of the undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common areas and facilities;*
- (c) any encumbrances affecting any of the apartments shall be deemed to be transferred in accordance with the existing priority to the percentage of the undivided interest of the apartment owner in the property as provided herein;*

(d) the property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any apartment owner; in which event the net proceeds of sale together with the net proceeds of the insurance on the property if any, shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all the apartment owners in percentage equal to the percentage of undivided interest owned by each owner in the property after first paying out all the respective shares of the apartment owners to the extent sufficient for the purpose and all charges on the undivided interest in the property owned by each apartment owner.

23. Action. - (1) Without limiting the rights of any apartment owner, actions may be brought by the Secretary or Managing Committee, in either case in the discretion of the Managing Committee, on behalf of two or more of the apartment owners as their respective interest may appear, with respect to any cause of action relating to the common areas and facilities or more than one apartment.

(2) Service of process on two or more apartment owners in any action relating to the common areas and facilities or more than one apartment may be made on the person designated in the declaration to receive service of process.

24. Act to be binding on apartment owners, tenants, etc. -

(1) All apartment owners, tenants of such owners, employees of such owners or tenants, or any other person who may in any manner use any property or any part thereof submitted to the provisions of this Act shall be subject to this Act and to the declaration and the bye-laws of the Association of Apartment Owners adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(2) All agreements, decisions and determinations lawfully made by the Association of Apartment Owners in accordance with the voting percentages established under this Act, the declaration or the bye-laws, shall be deemed to be binding on all apartment owners.

25. Power to make rules. - (1) The Government may, subject to the condition of previous publications, by notification in the Gazette, make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rules made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done or omitted to be done under that rule.

26. Application of Transfer of Property Act. - For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (Central Act 4 of 1882), shall in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to every apartment together with its undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment, as those provisions apply in relation to any immovable property, and the provisions of this Act shall take effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract.

27. Power to remove difficulties. - (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, as occasion may require, by order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act which appear to them necessary or proper for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(2) Every order issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is issued before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Legislative Assembly makes any modifications in the order or decides that the order should not be issued, the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything done or omitted to be done under that order.
